Dear Mr. Hulick:

The Division of Research for the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe of OIR, the Department of State, requests the loan for six to eight months of the services of Mr. Gustav Hilger, consultant. Mr. Hilger will be utilized principally in connection with a project on forced labor in the USSR, which is being directed by Mr. Thomas Larson, Chief, Sociological Branch, IRS. Space is available for Mr. Hilger on Deck A of the Main Building of the Library of Congress, where Mr. Kemp of the State Department (who is permanently stationed there) can be of assistance. The room has a cubicle and a telephone. If this request is approved, we are ready to put Mr. Hilger to work immediately.

Yours sincerely,
